Providence, Dec. 4 --- A SUNDAY EVENT

Bob Rizzo has been creating performance pieces for the past ten years, with his most recent work, "A Cowboy Movie," to debut at AS220 on Sunday, December 15, 1985,; 7pm & 9pm. To say that Mr. Rizzo's work have been thought provoking would be a bit of a understatement, this nights performance is told, by the author, to be more of a sensual and visual experience than a "weighted head trip". The Duke is dead, and Rizzo's "A Cowboy Movie" promises to fill the gap. Once again, the performances are at 7pm and 9pm, and the admission is $3.50.

AS220 offers its space to artist/performers for Sunday performances, with the option of raising the door charge to supplement the artist income. Fri. and Sat are, and will remain, $1.
